Section 1: Water and sanitation

School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week.

Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. Mobile clinics visited eleven villages that had been cut off by the floods. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm.

Prices of staple foods increased in the main market of Northland town. Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week.

Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm.

Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services.

A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. Prices of staple foods increased in the main market of Northland town.

Section 2: Health

Rains are expected to continue until the end of November. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week. Mobile clinics visited eleven villages that had been cut off by the floods. Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five.

Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week.

The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September. Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five. Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks. Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five.

Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week.

Prices of staple foods increased in the main market of Northland town. Prices of staple foods increased in the main market of Northland town. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services.

Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks. School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites. Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks.

Section 3: Shelter

Mobile clinics visited eleven villages that had been cut off by the floods. Prices of staple foods increased in the main market of Northland town. The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services.

Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites.

Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five. Prices of staple foods increased in the main market of Northland town.

The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September. Rains are expected to continue until the end of November. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five.

The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services.

Mobile clinics visited eleven villages that had been cut off by the floods. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week.

Section 4: Food security

Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five. Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season.

Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five. Prices of staple foods increased in the main market of Northland town.

Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week.

A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week. Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm. The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September.

Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week.

School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites. Prices of staple foods increased in the main market of Northland town. Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period.

Section 5: Protection

Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. Mobile clinics visited eleven villages that had been cut off by the floods. School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services.

Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week.

The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. Mobile clinics visited eleven villages that had been cut off by the floods.

Prices of staple foods increased in the main market of Northland town. The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September. Prices of staple foods increased in the main market of Northland town. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season.

The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September. Mobile clinics visited eleven villages that had been cut off by the floods. The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season.

Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks. Mobile clinics visited eleven villages that had been cut off by the floods. The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September. Prices of staple foods increased in the main market of Northland town.

Section 6: Access

Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five.

Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five. Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm.

Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks. Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month.

Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. Prices of staple foods increased in the main market of Northland town. School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites. Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month.

School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites. Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks. Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district.

A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm. School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites.

Section 7: Education

Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. Rains are expected to continue until the end of November.

Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. Mobile clinics visited eleven villages that had been cut off by the floods.

Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September. Rains are expected to continue until the end of November.

Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm. Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district.

Rains are expected to continue until the end of November. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services.

Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five.

Section 8: Funding

Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September. Rains are expected to continue until the end of November. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week.

Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm. The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services.

Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites.

Prices of staple foods increased in the main market of Northland town. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. Rains are expected to continue until the end of November. Prices of staple foods increased in the main market of Northland town.

The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September. Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five. Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks. The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September.

Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district.

Section 9: Water and sanitation

Rains are expected to continue until the end of November. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. Mobile clinics visited eleven villages that had been cut off by the floods. Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five.

Rains are expected to continue until the end of November. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week. Prices of staple foods increased in the main market of Northland town. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week.

The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services.

Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks. Rains are expected to continue until the end of November. The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September.

Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. Mobile clinics visited eleven villages that had been cut off by the floods. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm.

Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. Rains are expected to continue until the end of November. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. Rains are expected to continue until the end of November.

Section 10: Health

Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month.

Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season.

Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm.

Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week. The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm.

A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week. School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five.

Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district.

Section 11: Shelter

Rains are expected to continue until the end of November. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September. Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks.

Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. Mobile clinics visited eleven villages that had been cut off by the floods. Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month.

Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week. Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five.

Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm. Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks.

Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September. Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks.

School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. Mobile clinics visited eleven villages that had been cut off by the floods. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period.

Section 12: Food security

Prices of staple foods increased in the main market of Northland town. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week.

Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites. Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period.

The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September. The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September. Prices of staple foods increased in the main market of Northland town. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district.

Rains are expected to continue until the end of November. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week. Prices of staple foods increased in the main market of Northland town. Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks.

Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm. Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season.

Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week. Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks.

Section 13: Protection

Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week. Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five.

A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district.

Rains are expected to continue until the end of November. Prices of staple foods increased in the main market of Northland town. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. Rains are expected to continue until the end of November.

Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season.

Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. Mobile clinics visited eleven villages that had been cut off by the floods.

Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season.

Section 14: Access

School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm.

Rains are expected to continue until the end of November. Rains are expected to continue until the end of November. Prices of staple foods increased in the main market of Northland town. The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September.

School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites. Rains are expected to continue until the end of November. Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks. Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five.

Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm.

Rains are expected to continue until the end of November. Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five. Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week.

Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five. Mobile clinics visited eleven villages that had been cut off by the floods. The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district.

Section 15: Education

Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five. School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. Rains are expected to continue until the end of November.

Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. Prices of staple foods increased in the main market of Northland town.

Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. Mobile clinics visited eleven villages that had been cut off by the floods. School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites. The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September.

Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September. Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five.

Mobile clinics visited eleven villages that had been cut off by the floods. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm. Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites.

Rains are expected to continue until the end of November. Mobile clinics visited eleven villages that had been cut off by the floods. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week.

Section 16: Funding

Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites. The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm.

Mobile clinics visited eleven villages that had been cut off by the floods. Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks. The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September. The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September.

School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks.

Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. Rains are expected to continue until the end of November. Mobile clinics visited eleven villages that had been cut off by the floods.

Rains are expected to continue until the end of November. Mobile clinics visited eleven villages that had been cut off by the floods. Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm.

School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week.

Section 17: Water and sanitation

A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week. Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period.

A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week. Mobile clinics visited eleven villages that had been cut off by the floods. Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks. Prices of staple foods increased in the main market of Northland town.

Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. Rains are expected to continue until the end of November. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five.

Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. Prices of staple foods increased in the main market of Northland town. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district.

Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five. School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season.

Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September. Prices of staple foods increased in the main market of Northland town.

Section 18: Health

Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks. School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites.

School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm. Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week.

Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week. School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites.

Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. Mobile clinics visited eleven villages that had been cut off by the floods. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period.

Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm. School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites.

Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district.

Section 19: Shelter

Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks. Mobile clinics visited eleven villages that had been cut off by the floods. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period.

Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period.

Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district.

Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week. Prices of staple foods increased in the main market of Northland town. Prices of staple foods increased in the main market of Northland town.

Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district.

Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five. School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites. Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services.

Section 20: Food security

School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites. Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five. The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season.

Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September. Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five.

Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm.

Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites. School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period.

Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five. Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks. Rains are expected to continue until the end of November. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season.

Rains are expected to continue until the end of November. The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district.

Section 21: Protection

Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period.

Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five.

Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm. Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks.

A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week. School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services.

Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district.

Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September.

Section 22: Access

Mobile clinics visited eleven villages that had been cut off by the floods. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season.

Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five. Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. Rains are expected to continue until the end of November.

Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five. Rains are expected to continue until the end of November. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September.

Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm. The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September. Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services.

Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm. Rains are expected to continue until the end of November.

School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites. Prices of staple foods increased in the main market of Northland town. Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district.

Section 23: Education

Prices of staple foods increased in the main market of Northland town. Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five. Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five.

Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. Rains are expected to continue until the end of November. Mobile clinics visited eleven villages that had been cut off by the floods. Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks.

Rains are expected to continue until the end of November. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period.

The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September. School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season.

Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. Mobile clinics visited eleven villages that had been cut off by the floods. Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season.

Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm. Rains are expected to continue until the end of November. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites.

Section 24: Funding

Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks.

Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. Prices of staple foods increased in the main market of Northland town. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district. Prices of staple foods increased in the main market of Northland town.

Prices of staple foods increased in the main market of Northland town. Rains are expected to continue until the end of November. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season.

Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week. Rains are expected to continue until the end of November. Partners repaired two hand pumps and one borehole in Eastvale district.

Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week. School attendance rose after temporary learning spaces opened in three sites.

Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services.

Section 25: Water and sanitation

Mobile clinics visited eleven villages that had been cut off by the floods. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period.

Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five. The health cluster recorded fewer cases of acute watery diarrhoea than in September. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. Partners call for funding to keep water services running through the dry season.

A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. Protection teams referred 140 people to specialised services. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week.

Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five. Prices of staple foods increased in the main market of Northland town. Nutrition screening found higher rates of acute malnutrition among children under five. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week.

Food distributions covered 61 per cent of the planned caseload this month. A joint assessment is planned for the hill villages next week. Road access to the river crossing remains limited for heavy trucks. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm.

Mobile clinics visited eleven villages that had been cut off by the floods. Shelter kits were handed out to families whose homes were damaged in the storm. Water trucking reached 12,400 people in the northern camps during the reporting period. Mobile clinics visited eleven villages that had been cut off by the floods.